- (ii). Electronic mode which includes e-mail, internet and interactive television (DTH):
- (iii). Physical mode which includes direct postal mail and newspaper & magazine inserts; and
- (iv). Solicitation through any means of communication other than in person.

4.2 Loans

No loans are available under this Policy.

4.3 Partial Withdrawal

No Partial withdrawal is allowed under this Policy.

4.4 Discontinuance of due premiums by an individual member

4.4.1 Within the lock-in period of 5 member-contract years

If the due premiums are not paid within the grace period mentioned in Section 3.2.6, a revival notice will be sent to the individual member within fifteen days from the date of expiry of the grace period to such a member.

The individual member shall be entitled to exercise one of the following options

- i) Revive the policy within two years
- ii) Complete withdrawal from the policy without any insurance benefit.

The member has to exercise any one of the options within 30 days from the date of receipt of the revival notice. During this period, the policy will be treated as in-force with insurance benefits intact, base as well as accidental death benefit.

If the member opts to revive the policy, the policy continues with all the benefits. We will credit the interest amounts and debit the applicable charges.

If the individual member exercises the option of withdrawal or does not exercise any option, the balance in the Policy Account (after crediting interest amounts and debiting charges, as applicable) less applicable discontinuance charges will be switched to segregated Discontinued Policy Account (DPA). The insurance benefit and accidental death benefit ceases immediately. Only Fund Management Charges of 0.50% for the Discontinued Policy Account (DPA) will be deducted from the Discontinued Policy Account. The income earned on the Discontinued Policy Account (DPA) shall be apportioned to the Discontinued Policy Account (DPA) value with the minimum guaranteed interest rate of 4% p.a. on DPA. The proceeds of the discontinued policies shall be payable only on completion of lock-in period or revival period, whichever is later.

The individual member can revive the discontinued member-contract within two years from the date of discontinuance by paying the all due and unpaid premiums. If the individual member opts to revive the member-contract, then the proceeds of the Discontinued Policy Account (DPA) and the entire discontinuance charge deducted will be transferred to the individual member Policy Account at the time of revival.

If the revival period of two years is not completed at the end of the lock in period, then additional revival notice will be sent to the individual member within fifteen days from the date of expiry of the lock in period to such a member to exercise the following options within a period of thirty days of receipt of such notice:

- i) Revive the member-contract within the revival period
- ii) Complete withdrawal

4.4.2 After the lock-in period of 5 member-contract years

If the due premiums are not paid within the grace period, a notice will be sent to the member within fifteen days from the date of expiry of the grace period to such a member to exercise the following options within a period of thirty days of receipt of such notice.

- i) Revive the member-contract within a period of two years from the date of discontinuance. During the revival period member-contract will be treated as in force with insurance benefits.
- ii) Complete withdrawal from the member-contract without any insurance benefit and accidental death benefit
- iii) Convert the member-contract into paid-up member-contract, with reduced insurance benefit and accidental death benefit.

$\text{Paid-up Sum Assured} = \text{Base Sum Assured} * \text{Total no. of premiums paid/original number of premiums payable under the member-contract.}$

Where the member does not exercise any of the above option within a period of thirty days, default option 2 is applicable.

For option i & iii, the Company will credit the interest amounts) at the end of each financial quarter in to the Policy Accounts. Mortality charges, Accidental Death Benefit charges, Policy Administration Charges and Fund Management Charges, as applicable will be deducted from the Policy Account value.

If the individual member exercises the option to convert the member-contract to the paid-up member-contract, the member-contract continues with reduced insurance and accidental death benefits. The Basic Sum Assured will be reduced in proportion of number of premiums paid divided by the total number of premiums and mortality charges & Accidental death benefit charges will be based on reduced Basic Sum Assured.

4.5 Surrender by an individual member of the Group Scheme

- a) Individual member may surrender his/her member-contract (Certificate of Insurance) after a period of five years from the commencement of the member-contract (Certificate of Insurance)
- b) The balance in the Policy Account less discontinuance charge, if any will be paid to the member without any deduction
- c) A member-contract once surrendered by the member, cannot be reinstated

4.6 Full Surrender of the Scheme by the Master Policyholder:

- a) In case of surrender of the master policyholder, the individual members of the group on such surrender shall have an option to continue the member-contract as an individual policy and the company shall continue to be responsible to serve such members till the coverage is terminated.
- b) If the individual member does not want to continue the member-contract, the treatment would be on terms of the Surrender by an individual member of the Group Scheme.

4.7 Revival of the Policy Account by an individual member

- a) A member may revive his/her Policy Account by recommencing the payment of premiums any time during the period of two consecutive years from the date of discontinuance of the member-contract before the maturity of the Policy Account subject to satisfactory medical and / or financial underwriting.
- b) On revival, the insurance cover (including the additional cover on accidental death) will commence from the date of revival. The deduction of Premium Allocation charges will start along with the deduction of Mortality charges and Accidental Death benefit charges.

4.8 Non-foreclosure guarantee for in-force member-contract

If at any time the Policy Account value is less than the charges for the next month, the member-contract will not be foreclosed and the Death benefit and Accidental Death Benefit will continue till the term of the member-contract provided the due premiums are paid. The charges including the applicable service taxes will be deducted only to the extent of the Policy Account value.

4.9 Group Administration

4.9.1 Policy Account value

The Policy Account will be credited with

- 1) Regular premium (net of premium allocation charges) paid by the member every year
- 2) A guaranteed interest amount derived from Minimum Floor Rate (MFR) at the end of every financial quarter.
- 3) A non-zero positive additional interest amount derived from Additional Interest Rate (AIR) at the end of every financial quarter.

- 4) A non-zero positive residual addition (NRA), if any.

Both the Minimum Floor Rate (MFR) and Additional Interest Rate (AIR) shall be credited to the Policy Account Value net of relevant charges on pro-rata basis at the end of every financial quarter or the date of termination, whichever is earlier.

The Policy Account will be debited with

- 1) Premium Allocation Charges
- 2) Policy Administration Charges
- 3) Mortality Charges
- 4) Accidental Death Benefit Charges
- 5) Fund Management Charges
- 6) Taxes, duties or surcharges or whatever description levied by any statutory authority;

The Mortality charges, Accidental Death Benefit (ADB) Charges and Policy Administration Charges will be collected monthly in advance from the policy account.

4.9.2 New Members

- In case of death claim, proof of death and medical treatment reports, and other documents, if found necessary to the satisfaction of RLIC

c) Payment of benefits

Benefits shall be payable to the member or the beneficiary. In non-employer-employee cases, the individual group member would be treated as the insured beneficiary and the Master Policyholder will be only the holder of the group policy. The insurer may take the services of the Master Policyholder in facilitating the registering and settlement of a claim, however, the insurer is totally responsible to ensure that the claim payment is made in the name of the insured member or his/her nominee even if the cheque is sent to the Master Policyholder for administrative convenience or through any other electronic mode of payment to the specific bank account of the insured. This payment shall be made only when the service is rendered.

Master Policyholder shall be responsible for collecting KYC details of the nominee and beneficiary. Further Master Policyholder shall also be responsible to provide RLIC with a copy of the proposal form signed by the member insured.

The policy is underwritten on the express understanding that Name, Address, occupation, declaration of good health, witness details, age and other particulars of the Member as contained in the proposal form are accurate. The master policyholder shall be liable to indemnify Reliance Life Insurance Company Limited (RLIC) of any Losses, whether financial or reputational that RLIC may suffer on account of placing reliance on the above information supplied.

d) Benefit statement

A benefit statement will accompany all benefit payments. Each benefit statement will include the accrued benefits up to the date of payment. These statements are produced for distribution to the Member, to whom a benefit is being paid.

5 PART E

5.1 Applicable Additions

Credit of Investment Return to the Policy Account.

The premiums received from the members less applicable deductions (premium allocation charges) will be invested according to the IRDA Investment Regulations in respect of Policyholders funds. A separate member policy account called “Policy Account” will be maintained in respect of each member of the Group. The Company will earmark assets for this product separately and the Policy Account value for the product shall be disclosed on a daily basis in the company’s website through specifically assigned identification number (SAIN) for the fund for this product. SAIN for this product is 121N100V01004.

The product shall have:

- i) Guaranteed non-zero positive interest rate, referred as Minimum Floor Rate (MFR). Minimum Floor Rate is 2.50% p.a. for this product for the entire policy term. and
- ii) Non-zero positive Additional interest rate (AIR), if any, which is over and above the minimum floor rate. Additional interest rate is 1.25% p.a. for this product for the entire policy term.
- iii) Non-zero positive residual additions, if any, shall be credited to the policy account in order to meet the maximum reduction in yield as stipulated in Regulation 37 of IRDA (Linked Insurance Product) Regulation, 2013 at maturity or at the end of each policy year starting from year 5, whichever is earlier. Such non-zero positive residual additions may be funded by the shareholder if required.

Additional Interest Rate (AIR) Amount and Minimum Floor Rate (MFR) Amount are derived based on the policy account value net of relevant charges.

5.2 Applicable Deductions

5.2.1 Premium Allocation Charges

The Premium Allocation Charges is applicable on the annualized premiums paid by the members of the Group Scheme during first five years of the policy. It will be deducted before crediting the premiums in to the Policy Account of the member.

The rate of Premium Allocation Charges is stated below:

- 12% of the annualized premium in the first year.
- 7.5% of the annualized premium from second year to fifth year.
- 5.5% of the annualized premium from sixth year onwards.

5.2.2 Fund Management Charges

- 6) Health of the Life Assured

Monthly Mortality Charge= $(1/12) * [\text{Standard Mortality Charge} * \text{Mortality Selection Factor} * \text{Group Loading Factor} + \text{Extra Mortality Loading, if any}]$

There will be anti-selection risk in the absence of comprehensive underwriting and will be countered by applying a mortality selection factor for first three member-contract years for all members. Mortality Selection Factor will be based on the year of the member-contract in the following manner.

Member-Contact Year	Mortality Selection Factor
1	200%
2	150%
3	150%
4+	100%

The additional risk characteristics of the individual member will be dealt with an appropriate extra mortality loading as per the underwriting norms approved by the Board.

The Mortality charges and Accidental Death Benefit (ADB) Charges shall be guaranteed during the member-contract period.

5.2.5 Accidental Death benefit Charges

Annual charge for Accidental Death benefit up to age 65 last birthday is Rs.1 per 1000 Sum Assured and will be deducted on monthly basis at the beginning of each member-contract month using 1/12th of the charge.

5.2.6 Service Tax

This charge shall be levied on the Premium Allocation charges, Mortality charges, Accidental Death benefit charges, Policy Administration charges, Discontinuance charges and Fund Management charges. The level of this charge shall be as per the rate of Service Tax, declared by the Government from time to time. The current rate of Service tax is 12.36% (Service tax of 12% and education cess of 3%) as on April, 26th, 2014.

5.2.7 Charges levied by Government in future

In future RLIC may decide to pass on any additional charges levied by the governmental or any statutory authority to the member/policy holder. Whenever RLIC decides to pass on the additional charges to the member/policy holder, the method of collection of these charges shall be informed to them.

5.3 Discontinuance Charges

The discontinuance charge is as given below:

The year during which the member-contract is discontinued	Discontinuance charge if the annualised premium is less than or equal to Rs. 25,000	Discontinuance charge if the annualised premium is greater than Rs. 25,000

5.4 Shadow Account

Shadow policy account value shall be maintained on a daily basis. Such shadow policy account shall be computed based on the actual accruals of all income elements like premiums, income from investments as and when received and all actual debits from the policy account value as and when debited, to arrive at the actual gross investment return and reduction in yield to the policy account value, at the end of each policy year.

5.5 Guarantees on Charges

The company gives the guarantee on stability of following charges for the entire member-contract term:

- a. Premium Allocation Charges,
- b. Mortality Charges,
- c. Accidental Death Benefit Charges and
- d. Fund Management Charges

5.6 Recovery of additional expenses incurred on account of acts of policy holders

RLIC reserves the right to recover "cheque bounce charges", incurred by it from the policy holders, on account of dishonour of cheque issued towards premium payment, by policy holders. Company may recover these additional costs by requisitioning additional payments from the policyholders.

6 PART F

6.1 Proof of age

RLIC may require proof of age of the member/beneficiary before paying any benefits. If the age has been incorrectly stated, the benefits will be adjusted in terms of the trust deed and rules to reflect the true value. If the trust deed is silent in this aspect then the decision of the insurer is final and the same shall be fair and equitable to all the parties, as far as possible. This Policy shall however become voidable at the instance of RLIC from the date of commencement of this policy or the date of admission of the member, if the age of the Life Assured at the Policy Commencement Date or date of admission is found to be higher than the maximum or lower than the minimum entry age that was permissible under the plan of this Policy at the time of acceptance of risk on the life of the member. In such a case, the policy shall be cancelled immediately and the premiums received shall be refunded after deducting all the charges by the Company. It is the responsibility of the trustees to seek satisfactory evidence of the member's age.

6.2 Suicide Exclusion

In case of a claim where a member has committed suicide within 12 months:

- i. from the date of inception /revival of the member-contract, the nominee or beneficiary of the member shall be entitled to higher of 80% of the premiums paid, till the date of death or the policy account value as available on the date of death provided the policy is in force or
- ii. Any charges recovered subsequent to the date of death shall be paid back to the nominee or beneficiary along with the death benefit.

6.3 Policy Termination

- a) The Master Policy Holder may end the policy at any time by giving RLIC a written notice of termination. The policy ends on the date of receipt of such notice from the Master Policy Holder or such later date as specified in the notice.
- b) Where the policy is terminated during a policy period, Reliance Life Insurance Company Limited will pay back the Policy Account Value of members less surrender penalty or other charges, as may be applicable. The individual members of the group on such surrender of the Master Policy Holder shall have an option to continue the member-contract as an individual policy and the company shall continue to be responsible to serve such members till the coverage is terminated.
- c) The notice does not affect RLIC's liability in relation to each of the Members on the last day of notice period for claims arising on or before that date

6.4 Modifications

6.4.1 Insured Death benefit amount

RLIC reserves the right to effect the following changes by giving a 3 month's notice to the Master Policy Holder:

- a) Cease future increases to the Insured Death benefit amount
The notice mentioned above does not affect RLIC's liability in relation to each of the Members on the last day of the 3 months notice period for claims arising on or before that date.

6.4.2 Changes to the Insurance risk premiums

The Insurance risk premiums are guaranteed throughout the term of the contract.

6.5 Incontestability

- a) In case fraud or misrepresentation, the policy shall be cancelled immediately by paying the surrender value, subject to the fraud or misrepresentation being established by the insurer in accordance with Section 45 of the Insurance Act, 1938.
- b) In the event of any inconsistency or conflict between the terms and conditions contained in the Policy document and the terms and conditions contained in any other document such as marketing material or sales brochure, the Terms and Conditions contained in the Policy document shall prevail over all other terms and conditions contained in various other documents.

6.6 Review of Master Policyholder

RLIC reserves the right to review the functioning of the master policyholder, including the issuance of COI, claim process as per the directives of the Regulatory Authority provided in the Group Guideline issued vide Circular No. 015/IRDA/Life/Circular/GI Guidelines/2005 dated July 15, 2005

Each year at the end of the policy period, RLIC will provide the Member or the Master Policy Holder with a statement, showing a summary of all financial transactions and the returns earned i.e.:

- Opening balance of contributions/premiums at the beginning of the policy period;
- premiums received
- Benefits paid by crediting rate of return on investment in the Accumulation Account value
- Applicable deductions from the premium
- Closing balance at the end of the Policy period expressed in terms of the value in the member's accumulation account.

6.7 Taxes, duties and levies and disclosure of information

- a) This Policy, and the Benefits and the surrender value payable under this Policy shall be subject to the Regulations, including taxation laws in effect from time to time. All taxes, duties, levies or imposts including without limitation any sale, use, value added, service or other taxes, as may be imposed now or in future by any authority (collectively "Taxes") on the Premiums and other sums payable to RLIC or RLIC's obligations under the Policy or the Benefits payable under the Policy or in any way relating to this Policy, shall be borne and paid by the Policyholder or the Person to whom Benefits payable, as the case may be. The Premium and other sums payable under or in relation to the Policy do not include the Taxes. If, however, the applicable law imposes such Taxes on RLIC, then RLIC shall have the right to recover the same from the Policyholder or the Person to whom Benefits payable.
- b) The persons receiving the Benefits shall be solely liable for complying with all the applicable provisions of the Regulations, including taxation laws, and payment of all applicable Taxes. Except as otherwise required by law, RLIC shall not be responsible for any Tax liability arising in relation to this Policy or the Benefits payable in terms of this Policy. In any case where RLIC is obliged to account to the revenue authorities for any Taxes applicable to this Policy or the Benefits payable under this Policy, RLIC shall be entitled to deduct such Taxes from any sum payable under this Policy, and deposit the amount so deducted with the appropriate governmental or regulatory authorities.

- c) In any case where RLIC is obliged to disclose to the revenue or other regulatory authorities any information concerning the Policy, including information concerning the Premium and the Benefits under this Policy, RLIC shall be entitled to disclose the required information to the appropriate governmental or regulatory authorities.
- d) It shall be the responsibility of the Policyholder to satisfy himself and ensure that the payment of the Additional Premium does not adversely affect his entitlement or claim for tax benefits, if any, available or admissible under this Policy.

The Company reserves the right to deduct all applicable taxes, duties and surcharges on premiums and benefits, as per the applicable rate imposed by the Government authorities from time to time.

6.8 Charges Levied by the Government in Future

In future the Company may decide to pass on any additional charges levied by the governmental or any statutory authority to the policyholder. Whenever the company decides to pass on the additional charges to the policy holder, the method of collection of these charges shall be informed to them.

6.9 Nomination of beneficiary (Section 39 of Insurance Act, 1938)

The Master Policy Holder shall register a nomination of beneficiary, or any change of nomination of any beneficiaries, in the member's records. If the member provides authority for RLIC to pay benefits directly to his beneficiary(s), it is the responsibility of the Master Policy Holder to advise RLIC in writing of this request and the authority should include the beneficiary details as decided and agreed by the member and a statement of nomination signed by the member.

6.10 Assignment (Section 38 of Insurance Act, 1938)

Assignment will not be allowed under this plan.

6.11 Notice of new Members and Members who cease to be a member of the group

The Master Policy Holder will provide notice to RLIC of new Members joining the Reliance Group Sarv Samriddhi policy and of Members ceasing to be a member of the group for any reason.

6.12 Authority to pay benefits

In Non employer employee groups the payment of benefits under this policy shall be made either to the member or their beneficiaries.

The insurer shall make the payment towards claim in the name of the insured member or his/her nominee/legal heir through cheque or any other electronic mode of payment to the specific bank account of the insured/nominee. In case the appropriate details for the payment of benefit are not available and/or provided by the insured, then in that scenario, RLIC may send a cheque to the Master Policyholder in favour of the insured. The insurer may take the services of the Master Policyholder in facilitating the registration and settlement of a claim and make agreed payments towards for the services rendered by the Policyholder.

6.13 Endorsements

The terms and conditions of this Policy cannot be waived or changed except by endorsement approved and signed by RLIC's authorised officials.

We must be notified of any changes by the Principal Officer. RLIC will not be liable for any error in calculating or paying benefits, where such changes have not been provided by the Master Policy Holder and endorsed by RLIC under this Policy.

6.14 Electronic Transaction

The Master Policyholder shall adhere to and comply with all such terms and conditions as prescribed by RLIC from time to time and hereby agree and confirm that all transactions effected by or through facilities for effecting remote transactions including the Internet, World Wide Web, electronic data interchange, call centers, tele service operations (whether voice, video, data or combination thereof) or by means of electronic, computer, automated machines network or through other means of telecommunication, established by or on behalf of RLIC, for and in respect of the Policy or its terms, or RLIC's other products and services, shall constitute legally binding and valid transactions when done in adherence to and in compliance with RLIC's terms and conditions for such facilities, as may be prescribed from time to time.

6.15 Non-participation in surplus or profits

This Policy does not confer any rights on the Master policyholder to participate in surplus or profits of RLIC.

6.16 Notice under this Policy

Any of the notices required to be issued in terms of this Policy may be issued, either by issuing individual notices to the Master policyholder, including by electronic mail and/or facsimile, or by issuing a general notice, including by publishing such notices in newspapers and/or on RLIC's website.

6.16.1 In the event the notice is sent by RLIC

As per the details specified by the Master Policyholder in the Proposal Form/Change of Address intimation submitted by him. notices and instructions are sent through various modes such as electronic mail and/or facsimile, or by issuing a general notice, including by publishing such notices in newspapers and/or on RLIC's website.
