8. Renewal: The policy will be renewed except on grounds of misrepresentation / Non-disclosure of material fact as declared in the proposal form and at the time of claim, if any, fraud committed / moral hazard or non cooperation of the insured. A grace period of 30 days from the date of expiry of the policy is available for renewal. If renewal is made within this 30 days period the continuity of benefits will be allowed. However the actual period of cover will start only from the date of payment of premium. In other words no protection is available between the policy expiry date and the date of payment of premium for renewal.

If the policy is to be renewed or ported from other Indian Insurance Company for enhanced sum insured, such enhanced sum insured will not be available for an illness, disease, injury already contracted under the preceding policy periods. Further, for illness / disease / sickness already contracted, the sum insured will be restricted to that policy sum insured when the signs or symptoms was diagnosed or received medical advice / treatment.

In the event of this policy being withdrawn / modified with revised terms and/or premium with the prior approval of the Competent Authority, the insured will be intimated three months in advance and accommodated in any other equivalent health insurance policy offered by the Company, if requested for by the Insured Person, at the relevant point of time.

9. Free Look Period: A free look period of 15 days from the date of receipt of the policy is available to the insured to review the terms and conditions of the policy. In case the insured is not satisfied with the terms and conditions, the insured may seek cancellation of the policy and in such an event the Company shall allow refund of premium paid after adjusting the cost of pre-medical screening if any, stamp duty charges and proportionate risk premium for the period concerned provided no claim has been made until such cancellation.

Free look cancellation is not applicable at the time of renewal of the policy.

10. Portability: This policy is portable for Health benefits only and not applicable for Life Insurance benefit. If the insured is desirous of porting this policy to another Insurer towards renewal, application in the appropriate form should be made to the Company at least before 45 days from the date when the renewal is due.

Where the outcome of acceptance of portability is still waiting from the new insurer on the date of renewal, the existing policy will be extended on the request of the Insured person, for a period not less than one month on pro rata premium. Such extended cover will be cancelled only on the written request by the Insured Person, subject to a minimum pro rata premium for one month. If the Insured Person requests in writing to continue the policy with the Company without porting, it will be allowed by charging the regular premium with the same terms as per the expiring policy. In case of a claim made by the Insured person and admitted by the Company during such extension, the policy will be extended for the remaining period by charging the regular premium. Portability is not possible during the policy period. For details contact "portability@starhealth.in" or call Telephone No +91-044-2828886

11. Cancellation:

The Company may cancel this policy on grounds of misrepresentation, fraud, non disclosure of material fact as declared in the proposal form, or non-co-operation by the insured person, by sending the Insured 30 days notice by registered letter at the Insured person's last known address. The insured may at any time cancel this policy and in such event the Company shall allow refund of premium at Company's short Period rate only (table given below) provided no claim has occurred up to the date of cancellation.

PERIOD ON RISK	RATE OF PREMIUM TO BE CHARGED

11.1. Misrepresentation/Fraudulent Disclosures

Fraud, Misrepresentation and forfeiture would be dealt with in accordance with provisions of Sec. 45 of the Insurance Act 1938, as amended by Insurance Laws (Amendment), Act, 2015.

Section 45 of Insurance Act, 1938 as amended by Insurance Laws (Amendment) Act, 2015:

- + No policy of life insurance shall be called in question on any ground whatsoever after the expiry of three years from the date of the policy, i.e., from the date of issuance of the policy or the date of commencement of risk or the date of revival of the policy or the date of the rider to the policy, whichever is later.
- + A policy of life insurance may be called in question at any time within three years from the date of issuance of the policy or the date of commencement of risk or the date of revival, of the policy or the date of the rider to the policy, whichever is later, on the ground of fraud: Provided that the insurer shall have to communicate in writing to the insured or the legal representatives or nominees or assignees of the insured the grounds and materials on which such decision is based.
- + Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (2), no insurer shall repudiate a life insurance policy on the ground of fraud if the insured can prove that the mis-statement of or suppression of a material fact was true to the best of his knowledge and belief or that there was no deliberate intention to suppress the fact or that such mis-statement of or suppression of a material fact are within the knowledge of the insurer: Provided that in case of fraud, the onus of disproving lies upon the beneficiaries, in case the policyholder is not alive.
- + A policy of life insurance may be called in question at any time within three years from the date of issuance of the policy or the date of commencement of risk or the date of revival of the policy or the date of the rider to the policy, whichever is later, on the ground that any statement of or suppression of a fact material to the expectancy of the life of the insured was incorrectly made in the proposal or other document on the basis of which the policy was issued or revived or rider issued: Provided that the insurer shall have to communicate in writing to the insured or the legal representatives or nominees or assignees of the insured the grounds and materials on which such decision to repudiate the policy of life insurance is based: Provided further that in case of repudiation of the policy on the ground of misstatement or suppression of a material fact, and not on the ground of fraud, the premiums collected on the policy till the date of repudiation shall be paid to the insured or the legal representatives or nominees or assignees of the insured within a period of ninety days from the date of such repudiation.
- + Nothing in this section shall prevent the insurer from calling for proof of age at any time if he is entitled to do so, and no policy shall be deemed to be called in question merely because the terms of the policy are adjusted on subsequent proof that the age of the life insured was incorrectly stated in the proposal

11.2 Section 41 of the Insurance Act, 1938 as amended by Insurance Laws (Amendment) Act, 2015:

No person shall allow or offer to allow, either directly or indirectly, as an inducement to any person to take or renew or continue an insurance in respect of any kind of risk relating to lives or property in India, any rebate of the whole or part of the commission payable or any rebate of the premium shown on the policy, nor shall any person taking out or renewing or continuing a policy accept any rebate, except such rebate as may be allowed in accordance with the published prospectus or tables of the insurer.

Provided that acceptance by an insurance agent of commission in connection with a policy of life insurance taken out by himself on his own life shall not be deemed to be acceptance of a rebate of premium within the meaning of this sub-section if at the time of such acceptance the insurance agent satisfies the prescribed conditions establishing that he is a bonafide insurance agent employed by the insurer.

Any person making default in complying with the provisions of this section shall be liable for a penalty which may extend to ten lakh rupees
