Reporting and Notice

5.

The Insured shall, as a condition precedent to exercising any rights under this policy, give to the Company written notice of any Claim as soon as practicable but no later than the earliest of the following dates:

- (a) sixty (60) days after the date on which the Insured's chief executive officer, chief financial officer, in-house general counsel, partner, president, managing director, chairperson or equivalent position in any jurisdiction, first becomes aware that the Claim has been made;
- (b) if this policy expires (or is otherwise terminated) without being renewed and if no Extended Reporting Period is granted, sixty (60) days after the effective date of such expiration or termination; or
- (c) the expiration date of the Extended Reporting Period, if granted;

provided that if the Company sends written notice to the Insured Organisation, at any time before the date set forth in item (a) above with respect to any Claim, stating that this policy is being terminated for non-payment of premium, the Insured shall give the Company written notice of such Claim prior to the effective date of such termination.

If during the Policy Period the Insured:

- becomes aware of circumstances which could give rise to a Claim and i) gives written notice of such circumstances to the Company;
- receives a written request to waive a statute of limitation applicable to ii) Wrongful Acts occurring before or during the Policy Period and gives written notice of such request and of such alleged Wrongful Acts to the Company; then any Claim subsequently arising from the circumstances referred to in i) or from the Wrongful Acts referred to in ii) above shall be deemed to have first been made during the Policy Period in which the written notice described in i) or ii) above was first given by the Insured to the Company as set forth in this section. With respect to any such subsequent Claim, no coverage under this policy shall apply to loss incurred prior to the date such subsequent Claim is actually made.

In order to make a Claim or to provide notice of circumstances the Insured shall, as condition precedent to exercising any right under this policy, provide written notice of a Claim or circumstances to the Company. This written notice shall include:

- 1. a description of the Claim or circumstances;
- 2. the nature of the alleged Wrongful Acts;
- the nature of the alleged or potential damage; 3.
- the names of actual or potential claimants; 4
- the names of all actual or potential defendants; and 5.
- the manner in which such Insured first became aware of the Claim or 6 circumstances.

For the purposes of these definitions, the singular includes the plural and the plural includes the singular, unless otherwise indicated.

Valuation and Foreign Currency 22. All premiums, limits, retentions, Loss and other amounts under this policy are expressed and payable in Indian currency. If judgment is rendered, settlement is denominated or another element of Loss under this policy is stated in a currency other than Indian rupees, then payment under this policy shall be made in Indian Rupees at the mid rate of exchange of the Reserve Bank of India published on the date the final judgment is entered, the amount of the settlement is agreed upon or the other element of Loss is due, respectively.

Grievance Redressal and Arbitration 23. Any Insured who has a grievance against the Company arising under, out of, in connection with or in relation to this policy, or to its existence, validity or termination, or to the determination of any amounts payable under this policy, may, personally or through their legal heirs, make a complaint in writing to the Indian Insurance Ombudsman in accordance with the procedure contained in The Redressal of Public Grievance Rules, 1998, as amended. Provided that, in accordance with Rule 16(2) of the Ombudsman Rules, any compensation awarded by the Ombudsman will be limited to the lower of the amount necessary to cover the loss suffered by the Insured as a direct consequence of the insured peril or Rupees Twenty Lakhs only (Rs. 20 lakhs), inclusive of any ex-gratia and other expenses. At the prior written request of the Insured, the Company shall make available a copy of said Rules to such Insured.

Subject to the foregoing, any and all disputes or differences which may arise under, out of, in connection with or in relation of this policy, or to its existence, validity or termination, or to the determination of any amounts payable under this policy, shall be referred for resolution by binding arbitration at Mumbai, in accordance with the provisions of the Indian Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996, as amended. Provided, however, that no such dispute or difference shall be referred to arbitration, if the same is already the subject matter of a complaint pending before the Insurance Ombudsman. Should the dispute or difference which is the subject matter of complaint before the Insurance Ombudsman not be resolved in that forum, then such dispute or difference will be referred to binding arbitration, in accordance with the Indian Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996, as amended.

Arbitration shall be conducted as follows:

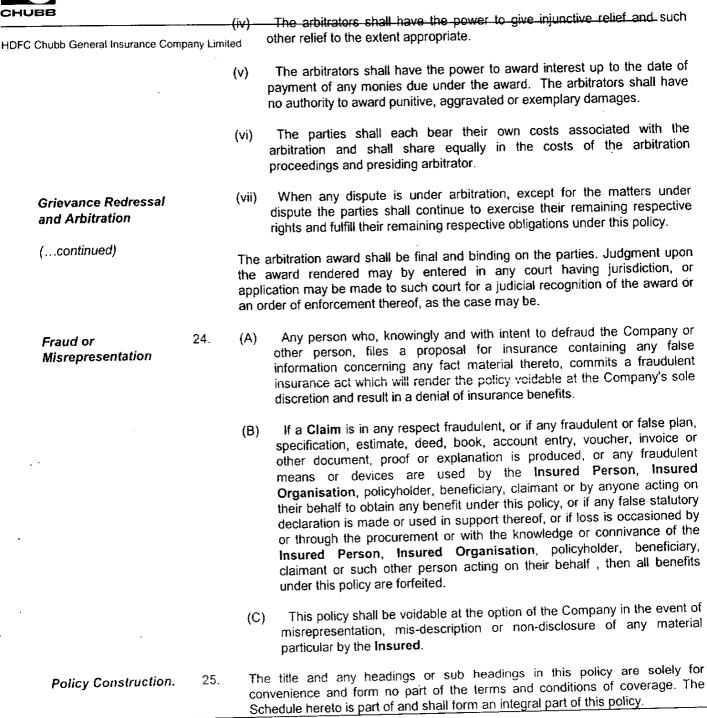

- (i) All proceedings in any arbitration shall be conducted in English and a daily transcript in English of such proceedings shall be prepared.
- (ii) Within thirty (30) days after either the Company or the Insured issues notice under this Section 22, the parties shall each appoint one arbitrator. The two arbitrators shall appoint a third arbitrator, who shall serve as the presiding arbitrator. All three arbitrators shall be required to have at least five (5) years' experience in general insurance, either as lawyers or as underwriters.
