2. BASIS OF INDEMNITY –

a) In cases where damage to an Insured item can be repaired, the Company will pay expense necessarily incurred to restore the damaged machine to its former state of serviceability plus the cost of dismantling and re-erection incurred for the purpose of effecting the repairs as well as ordinary freight to and from a repair shop, customs duties if any to the extent such expenses have been included in the Sum Insured. If the repairs are executed at a workshop owned by the Insured the Company will pay the cost of materials and wages incurred for the purpose of the repairs plus a reasonable percentage to cover overhead charges.

No reductions shall be made for depreciation in respect of parts replaced except for (a) wear and tear parts and (b) parts for which the manufacturers have specified a fixed life for use and the like. It is now clarified that parts which are not supposed to last the full life of the machine will have to be treated as wear and tear parts.

If the cost of repairs as detailed hereinabove equals or exceeds the actual value of the machinery Insured immediately before the occurrence of the damage the settlement shall be made on the basis provided for in (b) below.

b) In cases where an Insured item is destroyed, the Company will pay the actual value of the item immediately before the occurrence of the loss including costs for ordinary freight erection and customs duties if any provided such expenses have been included in the Sum Insured, such actual value to be calculated by deducting proper depreciation from the replacement value of the item. If the Sum Insured is less than the amount required to be Insured as per Provision 1 hereinabove, the Company will pay only in such proportion as the Sum Insured bears to the amount required to be Insured. Every item if more than one shall be subject to this condition separately.

The Company will make payments only after being satisfied, with the necessary bills and documents that the repairs have been effected or replacements have taken place, as the case may be. The Company may, however, not insist for bills and documents in case of total loss where the Insured is unable to replace the damaged equipments for reasons beyond their control.
